a Copy of Govt. order No. H. 2434-5

Value viz. Rs. 11-12-0 be deducted therefrom

I beg to lay before that for menial service of 30 years & above only a pension is allowable and that rules be strictly applied.

in

in my case I get only a couple of Rupees about 7/- or 8/- (as my husband died only a month and a half after he was retired), Out of this Rs 11-12 — the balance of the Value will have to be deducted.

My husband's petition to the Treasury offices was to the effect that as I and my five Children are poverty stricken and are quite destitute, he would move the Govt of H. H. to grant a gratuity and get the balance of the Value remitted.

I am also informed that the Govt of His Highness has graciously, in some Cases where the deceased's Servants' wife and Children were quite helpless, granted a gratuity even for Services entitled to pension.

Now I humbly request your honor to be so kind as to move the Govt. to grant me as a Special Case a gratuity to enable me to start my eldest son in some hetty trade which I beg to lay before Govt will be means of livelihood for my family.

For which act of Kindness I shall ever pray for Govt honor's long life.
